

The University of Arizona Museum of Art

Exhibits & Events - Summer 2008

-
- May
- 5 Exhibit – Master Impressions: Landscapes, on view through September 22, 2008. Kress Gallery
- 21 Volunteer Roundup – 10 am, Interested in becoming a museum volunteer? Find out about volunteering in UAMA's docent and outreach program and office support activities.
- 25 Mars at the Museum – 1 to 4 pm, Journey through Robert McCall's paintings, learn about the process of how artwork is honored and chosen for a stamp in a presentation by the Postal History Foundation, and partake in children's hands-on activities. Author and Illustrator Chris Gall will be at the museum to sign copies of his new children's book, There's Nothing To Do On Mars
- 29 Exhibit – Of Flesh, Form, and Matter: Sculpture Selected from the UAMA Collections. Exhibition will be on view through September 7, 2008. Main & South Galleries
-
- June
- 12 Exhibit – Abstraction: Variations, on view through August 17, 2008. Gallagher Gallery
- 12 Exhibit – The Portrait in America, on view through October 19, 2008. Hanson Gallery
- 12 Exhibit – Painting the Photograph: American Photorealists, on view through August 17, 2008. Mezzanine Gallery
- 14 Mars Discovery Day – 1 to 4 pm, Pat Woida, UA senior staff engineer, reports on early findings from the Mars Landing. Enjoy robotic arm painting and other activities for kids. Author and illustrator Chris Gall will return for a reading and booksigning of his new children's book, There's Nothing To Do On Mars.
- 16-20 Teen Workshop & Program – 10 am to 4 pm daily, Destination Poetry and Art: A Summer Adventure for Teens. Teens, ages 13-18, are invited to explore place and space through observation and creation of artwork at UAMA and then travel to the UA Poetry Center to explore landscapes through language. Registration required. Contact Education Department, 621-9506.
-
- July
- 26 Drawing Workshop - 1 to 4 pm, Drawing Portraits, with artist Jo Valandry. Using dry medium explore the fundamentals of facial anatomy and creative expression. This workshop is in conjunction with the exhibition The Portrait in America. Preregistration required, cost is $30. Contact Lisa Hastreiter-Lamb, 621-9506 or lisah@email.arizona.edu for registration information.
-
- August
- 2 Photography Workshop - 1 to 4 pm, Fabulous Photo Portraits, with photographer Bryan Call. Bring your digital camera and discover techniques for creating distinct photo portraits. In conjunction with the exhibition The Portrait in America. Preregistration required, cost is $30. Contact Lisa Hastreiter-Lamb, 621-9506 or lisah@email.arizona.edu for registration information.
-
- September
- 4 Exhibit - Fernando Gallego and His Workshop: The Altarpiece from Ciudad Rodrigo, on view through February 8, 2009.
- 18 Exhibit - Jenny Schmid: The Vistas of Gender Utopia, on view through November 8, 2008.
-
- Ongoing
- The Samuel H. Kress Collection: A New View*, Kress Galleries
- Highlights of the 20th Century from the Permanent Collections*, Pfeiffer Gallery